

Business continuity for our clients

We've updated and improved our data protection strategy to ensure business continuity for our clients. The plan includes insurance for lost files, lost work and lost data if there should be a fire, flood, or other disaster.

We want to indemnify clients for time and work lost if the worst happen. Shouldn't every agency have a similar plan?